

PEOPLE ● HEALTH ● LIFESTYLE ● ART ● BOOKS ● RECIPES

FEATURES

Kitchener's birthday bash

THE "Backyard Party" to celebrate the birthday of the late Grandmaster of Calypso, Kitchener (Aldwyn Roberts) at the Diego Martin Pan Institute (DMPI) last Saturday night was an enjoyable affair.

Held "under the pommecythere tree," the event was hosted by calypsonian Crazy (Edwin Ayoung) and featured fellow bards interpreting compositions of the late master tunesmith to the delight of the audience.

● BACKYARD continues on Page 12B

FEATURES

SKATIE and Allrounder

Rontech Computers

Only
$210.00 Per Month

ABSOLUTELY NO DOWNPAYMENT!

Call Us Today @ 6654128 / 6719054 / 6722442
www.rontechtt.com

Need a new system? Overwhelmed by the options? Need someone to consult with you about what you really need? Rontech prides itself on

'Kitch hats' giveaway

● BACKYARD from Page 12B

"Kitch hats" were given away to persons who identify the Kitchener calypso played by DJ Scratch at the beginning of activities.

All proceeds from the event will go to the Kitchener Museum and the cultural programmes fund of the DMPI.

Newsday was there and brought back these images.

VETERAN pan tuner Bertie Marshall and companion

GYPSY in full flight performing his Kitch selection.

OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER